This week in 4th grade:

Play60 on THURSDAY—

Play60 will take place this Thursday from 11-1. It will be warm and sunny on Thursday so make sure your child puts on sunscreen and wears clothes and shoes suitable for playing outside! Your child may bring sunscreen to apply to themselves; they will not be allowed to share sunscreen with one another. Your child may also bring a hat to wear to keep the sun off of their face.

EOG Testing will be May 24 & 25. Please add the dates to your calendar and avoid scheduling appointments for your child on those days! :-)

Important Dates

April 20—Play 60 (11am-1pm)
April 26—Early Release
May 9—Raleigh Fieldtrip
May 24/25—EOG TESTING
May 29—No School
June 2—Field Day
June 9—Last day of school

This week in 4th grade:

Reading—

We are continuing our unit on reading technical, scientific, and historical texts.

Writing—

Have your child log on to Discovery Education and share their board with you! This week, we will be practicing referring to a text in our responses.

Social Studies—

We are continuing our study on the American Revolution including important battles in the country and North Carolina's role in the Revolution. This week we will learn about the Edenton Tea Party, the Mecklenburg Resolves, and the Halifax Resolves as well as learning about battles fought around NC.

Science—

We will begin our last science unit after our fieldtrip to Raleigh.

Math—

We are continuing our work on problem-solving strategies this week as well as beginning our last math unit. We will begin learning about measurement. This week we will study length, weight, capacity, and time. It is a short unit. We will begin our EOG review at the beginning of May.
